Curling at 25hours Hotels in Hafencity

Hamburg: The Lindengarten at 25hours Hotel Altes Hafenampt turns into a winter wonderland. From now on, 25hours in Hamburg is offering two curling rinks on the festively decorated terrace in the middle of Hafencity. The pop-up is suitable as an outdoor activity for families, friends and team evenings. Hotel guests are also invited to grab a curling stick. The weatherproof rinks are set up until the end of January and can be rented daily from 3 to 9 pm by the hour. The last slot starts at 8 pm. There is also a mulled wine package for all game enthusiasts.

“In addition to ice skating and the obligatory visit to the Christmas market, curling is an absolute winter highlight. No special previous knowledge is required. It’s more about having fun together,” explains Patrick Moreira, General Manager of the 25hours Hotels in Hafencity. “Anyone who has exhausted themselves and wants to end the evening in a cosy atmosphere is in good hands at the NENI or heimat restaurant in the neighbouring 25hours Hotel Hafencity.”

Curling was traditionally played on frozen lakes. Two teams with a maximum of four crew members compete against each other. The aim is to manoeuvre ones team’s curling sticks as close as possible to the stave, the target in the middle, in order to collect the most points. To do this, the teams take turns until all eight ice sticks have been played. After scoring, there are three more rounds. Detailed rules of the game will be provided on site.

Individual bookings are now possible via Eisstock Hamburg for 149 euros per hour. Group bookings for 20 to 50 people including event management, moderation and winner’s trophy via Teamgeist Hamburg from 39 euros per person. The mulled wine flat rate is 12 euros per person and hour.
