Shuffleboard Revival at 25hours Hotel Altes Hafenamt

Hamburg: Following a successful winter season with two curling rinks in the Lindengarten at 25hours Hotel Altes Hafenamt, games and sports enthusiasts can now look forward to a new summer activity. Two shuffleboard rinks have recently been set up for all fans or those who want to become one. Up to eight people can play on one lane at the same time. The courts will be set up until the end of October and can be rented daily between 12 noon and 8 p.m. for a minimum of one hour. The last slot starts at 7 p.m. Refreshing drinks are available on request from the NENI team.

“After the positive feedback on our curling rinks, we have once again teamed up with our partner Teamgeist to offer a cool pop-up during summer. Like curling, this game is great for families, friends, team evenings and, of course, our guests. The rules are simple and with a little skill, anyone can score points,” says Patrick Moreira, General Manager of the 25hours Hotels in the HafenCity, adding: “Curling will then continue in November.”

The game of skill was first played as a table game in England in the 15th century and developed into a popular activity on board ships in the second half of the 19th century. Instead of on tables, it was played on deck. The first shuffleboard clubs with outdoor courts appeared in the 20th century. The shuffleboard court is a rectangular playing field with a scoring triangle on the opposite side. The game is played in two teams. The aim is to use the cue sticks to manoeuvre the discs to the opposite side of the court so that they land in the highest scoring area possible. The team with the most points wins. The exact rules of the game are provided on site. Bookings can now be made via Shuffleboard Hamburg for €59 per hour.
