Dubai, UAE, 21st January 2026 – This Ramadan, 25hours Hotel One Central invites families, friends, and loved ones to gather, connect, and create lasting memories, celebrating the UAE's Year of Family 2026. More than just a meal, the hotel's Iftar and Suhoor experiences are designed to bring people together, encouraging shared moments, laughter, and meaningful connections across generations. From lively courtyard gatherings at Nomad Day Bar to intimate, contemporary evenings at Juña, every detail is crafted to make Ramadan a time for togetherness.

At Nomad Day Bar, the Iftar buffet is served daily from sunset until 9pm. Guests are welcomed with traditional dates, dried fruits, and nuts, before enjoying warming soups, fresh salads, and cold mezze such as hummus, baba ghanoush, muhammara, fattoush, and tabbouleh — perfect for passing around the table and sharing with family. Hot mezze offerings like vegetable samosas, cheese sambousek, spinach fatayer, falafel, beef kibbeh, and warm stuffed vine leaves encourage interaction and playful sharing, making every bite a conversation starter.

The main buffet continues the spirit of togetherness, with Middle Eastern and international favourites meant for sharing. Signature dishes include lamb ouzi with spiced rice and nuts, chicken machboos, beef kofta in tomato sauce, samak harra, baked hammour with lemon and herbs, butter chicken, vegetable biryani, lentil and sweet potato curry, alongside rice, potatoes, and seasonal vegetables. Live stations add energy and excitement to the evening, with freshly prepared chicken shawarma, Arabic flatbreads, and a carving station featuring rosemary leg of lamb with mustard jus. affair, with Umm Ali, cheese kunafa, baklava, qatayef with nut and cream, chocolate brownies, classic cakes, and fresh seasonal fruit — offering treats to delight guests of all ages. Designed to bring families together, Iftar at Nomad invites multi-generational gatherings, with children under 6 dining free (minimum four guests), making it the perfect occasion to celebrate with loved ones. Iftar is priced at AED 200 per person.

Nomad Day Bar is also delighted to partner with Petrichoor Chocolate, a homegrown UAE brand whose inspiring journey celebrates resilience, innovation, and the sweetness of life. Founded by Salsabil Kassem, who was diagnosed with Type 2 diabetes at just 17, Petrichoor creates sugar-free chocolate that allows everyone — including those with dietary restrictions — to indulge without compromise. Inspired by the UAE's spirit and the legacy of HH Sheikh Zayed, each chocolate is crafted with premium ingredients and artisanal care, blending heritage with modernity. Served as part of the Iftar setup, Petrichoor chocolate adds a thoughtful and delicious touch to the evening, inviting families and friends to share moments of sweetness and connection, reinforcing the spirit of togetherness that Ramadan celebrates.

For those seeking a more intimate, elevated family gathering, Juña Rooftop offers Iftar daily from sunset until 8pm, priced at AED 220 per person, including Ramadan drinks and water. Guests can begin with a choice of hearty soups, followed by shareable cold and hot mezze that bring families together. The main course offers a variety of signature dishes, from roasted lamb shank and Moroccan meatballs to Gemistas, grilled tiger prawns, or seared seabass, complemented by flavourful sides. Dessert features cheese kunafa or baklava, perfect for indulging together. Juña's serene setting encourages families and friends to linger, laugh, and enjoy the quieter moments of Ramadan. The venue stays open late, providing a seamless transition from Iftar into relaxed evening conversations.

As the night continues, Juña hosts Suhoor à la carte from 9pm to 2am, with packages starting from AED 100 including soft drinks. Suhoor offers a calm and intimate environment for families and friends to pause, reflect, and share moments before the day begins — extending the spirit of Ramadan and togetherness beyond sunset.
